

WHY WE DO PAY WHAT YOU CAN PREVIEW NIGHTS

To help make the arts accessible for all, we offer a Pay What You Can Performance (PWYC) for every Artistry production. We hope this gives patrons who may not otherwise be able to join us a high-quality Artistry theater experience.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Half of the available PWYC tickets are available for purchase in advance, for those who would prefer to order ahead of time. Advance tickets may be purchased for $10 and up online, in person, or by phone. The remaining tickets are reserved for purchase starting at 6:30 p.m., in person, on the evening of the performance. "Night-of" tickets may be purchased for $1 and up.

I'M BUYING NIGHT-OF TICKETS IN PERSON. WHAT TIME SHOULD I COME? IS IT CASH ONLY?

In person "night-of" ticket sales start at 6:30 p.m. A line typically starts forming around 6pm or so, and while we accept all major credit cards, we prefer cash – it makes the line go much faster!

Please note: All preview performances are GENERAL ADMISSION, whether or not you order tickets in advance. Tickets ordered in advance will be held at WILL CALL.
